

January 23, 2013

The Life of Nina Barrie

- Mass of Christian Burial for Nina Barrie, 91, of Aberdeen and formerly of Conde, will be 10:30 a.m., Friday, January 25th at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Aberdeen. Father Shane Stevens will officiate. Burial will follow in Sunset Memorial Gardens, Aberdeen.
- Visitation will be held at the church for one hour prior to services on Friday.
- Nina died Saturday, January 19, 2013 at Mother Joseph Manor in Aberdeen.
- Nina Emma Worlie was born on April 1, 1921 to Thomas and Mary (Rahm) Worlie. As a child, she lived on a farm near Conde. On October 1, 1941, she united in mar riage with Erdon Barrie at St. John's Catholic Church in Conde. Together, they made their home near Conde. Nina enjoyed working on the farm and helping to take care of the many animas and livestock that they raised. They retired in 1974 and moved into Conde. In 2009 they moved to Aberdeen and Erdon passed away in December of 2010.

- She and Erdon liked camping in their motor home on their many fishing trips.
- They also took bus trips to several different states.
- Celebrating her life are her nieces and nephews, her brother-in-law, Rolland Barrie and sisiter-in-law, Vivian Rush.
- Preceding her in death were her parents, her husband, Erdon of 69 years, three brothers: Melvin, Marvin and Wayne, two sisters: Hazel and Neva, and several nieces and nephews.
- Casketbearers will be Merlin Worlie, Jerry Worlie, Dick Rahm and Ron Worlie.